

Jason had his first baseball game today. He was the first at bat.

Jason was nervous. He swung the bat and watched the ball soar into the outfield. Jason ran to first base as his family cheered.

What is the main idea of this story?

