The Farm

A farm is a place where you can grow food or raise animals.

A farmer is the one who runs it. There are lots of jobs to do on a farm. The farmer gets out of bed when the sun comes up.

First, he feeds all the animals. He may have cows, hens, and pigs to feed.

After the animals eat, the farmer eats, too! Hens lay eggs that we can eat. They sit on the eggs in their nests. The farmer gets the eggs from the hens.

Cows make milk to drink. The farmer milks the cows.

The farmer grows food, too. He rakes the ground and digs holes. The farmer plants seeds. He pulls up weeds and makes sure that bugs stay away.

The plants he grows are called crops. He waters the crops. The plants and crops grow big. The farmer picks the crops when they look ready to eat.

Then he packs up his eggs, milk, and crops to sell. He uses a big truck to carry the eggs, milk, and crops. He sells the food to you and me. We take the food home and make good things to eat.

Fresh food from the farm is so good for us!
